

Licensed Acupuncturist

Renewal Wellness | Forest City, NC

Renewal Wellness is an integrative therapeutic space focused on providing whole-body care through a collaborative, multidisciplinary approach. Our clinic brings together services including acupuncture, sensory-based therapy, massage therapy, chiropractic care, and behavioral support to create a calm, restorative environment for our clients.

We are seeking a licensed Acupuncturist who is passionate about holistic healing and interested in working within a team-based wellness setting.

About the Role

This position offers the opportunity to build and grow your practice within an established and expanding wellness space. You will work alongside a variety of practitioners, allowing for collaboration and cross-referrals while maintaining autonomy in your treatment approach.

What You'll Do

- Provide acupuncture treatments tailored to individual client needs
- Develop and implement personalized treatment plans
- Support clients with a range of concerns (pain management, stress, nervous system regulation, etc.)
- Collaborate with other providers to support overall client outcomes
- Maintain accurate and timely documentation
- Create a calm, welcoming treatment environment

Who You Are

- Licensed Acupuncturist in North Carolina (or eligible for licensure)
- Strong foundation in Traditional Chinese Medicine
- Comfortable working with a diverse client population
- Professional, compassionate, and client-centered
- Interested in integrative, team-based care
- Motivated to build and grow within a shared space
