Additional Admissions Information

The admissions process includes a comprehensive analysis of master's level transcripts to ensure that applicable coursework is equivalent to the published Daoist Traditions master's degree program content knowledge and competencies.

Upon acceptance, applicants from other master's level programs must:

- 1) complete a written assessment to confirm masters level content knowledge;
- 2) review a series of videos and complete online assessments on the acupuncture channel systems; and
- 3) review a video and complete an online assessment on research basics, if a college-level research class was not previously completed.

Daoist Traditions alumni who graduated from the master's program more than 5 years prior to entering the doctoral program must complete a written assessment to demonstrate retention of content knowledge and professional competencies.
