Igniting healing with methods designed by nature

We are a busy, growing office in the downtown Cary area looking for the right candidate to work in our clinic and grow with us as we expand.

We specialize in women's health and fertility, but also see a variety of other conditions such as anxiety and pain management.

We are also in network with VA and UHC.

Potential to make over $70 per hour and flexible work hours / days.

This is a great opportunity for new grads looking for their next step or more experienced practitioners as well.

feel free to reach out if you are interested and want to hear more about the position.

919 Kildaire Farm Rd. g4, Cary, NC 27511
