

Program	MAHM	MAHM/DAHM	DAHM	CCHM
Goals	Master's immersive cohort-based Master of Acupuncture & Herbal Medicine program with strong clinical focus where students gain tools to become independent practitioners	Dual Degree immersive cohort-based program allows students to earn both the Master and Doctor of Acupuncture & Herbal Medicine, preparing for today's team-based medical model	Professional Track flexible, practitioner-friendly program for acupuncturists to earn their Doctor of Acupuncture & Herbal Medicine to enhance their practice	Herbal Certificate practitioner-friendly program for acupuncturists who want in-depth Chinese Herbal Medicine training to become eligible for NCCAOM herbology exam
Entry Requirements	60 undergraduate semester credits	90 undergraduate semester credits	Graduate of Master of Acupuncture & Chinese Herbs	Graduate of Master of Acupuncture (or currently attending)
Time Requirements & Schedule	4 years in-depth classroom & clinical learning; limited online coursework	4 years in-depth classroom & clinical learning; weekly online doctoral coursework; in-person doctoral session each semester	1 year weekly online coursework with in-person session each semester	24 months weekly online coursework; in-person classes every 2-3 months; monthly supervised clinical training in final term
Tuition/Fees & Available Aid*	$21,000/year + fees (aid available)	$21,000/year (MAHM) + $12,000/program (DAHM) + fees (aid available)	$12,000/program + fees (aid available)	$15,000/program + fees (aid available)

*Tuition for 2025-26. Tuition rates set annually